Blessed are You, Holy One, life of all worlds, who creates the the fruit of the vine. Blessed are You, Holy One, life of all worlds, who has set us apart with your mitzvot and taken pleasure in us. In your love and favor you have made Shabbat as a memory of the work of creation. It is first among our holy days, a memory of leaving Egypt. You have called to us and set us apart to serve you and with love you have given us Shabbat as a sacred inheritance. Blessed are you, Holy One, who makes Shabbat holy.
